

NUA's

Teaching For Intelligence: Believe To Achieve

CONFERENCE

Albany, New York • March 28–30, 2008 • Governor Rockefeller Empire State Plaza

Presenters

Leading educators, scholars, authors and advocates sharing their visions for creating schools where all children can reach their highest potential.

Jonathan Kozol

Linda Darling-Hammond

Reuven Feuerstein

Sonia Nieto

Eric Cooper

Yvette Jackson

Donna Ogle

Pedro Noguera

P. David Pearson

Terrie Williams

Dorothy Strickland

Uri Treisman

Donna Alvermann

Kylene Beers

Plus twenty more well-known featured presenters and sixty break-out sessions.

Three preconferences on March 27:

- A Day with NUA
- NUA/Stanford SRN-LEADS Bridges
- Intro to Feuerstein's IE

Ticketed luncheons with speakers on Friday, Saturday, and Sunday.

School visits on March 27th

Graduate credit available to participants

For Information On Becoming An NUA Consultant/Mentor, go to www.nuatc.org and click on:
"Become an NUA mentor"

EARLY BIRD REGISTRATION FEE
available on website.

Conference Themes

The most important issues facing all educators today will be explored at this conference, and answers to the questions raised will be proposed in the exploration of these issues:

- Assessment, Language Development and Literacy
- Promoting High Intellectual Performance and Enrichment
- Learning Needs of Boys
- Culture and Learning
- Educator Preparation
- Leadership and the Challenges of the 21st Century
- Multilingual Education

"I met the dynamic team from NUA last year at the TFI:BTA conference in Birmingham. It was one of the BEST conferences I have ever attended. The group really cares...it is about impacting student lives forever!" —JEANNE ZEHR

Sponsored by

National Urban Alliance for Effective Education

And its partners:

The City School District of Albany

New York State
School Boards Association

New York State Union of Teachers

LEADERS • EDUCATORS • ADVOCATES

School
Re design
Network

and the LEADS Initiative
at Stanford University

For much more information or to register, go to www.Believetoachieve.org or call LJJ Educational Resources at 847 397-8527 or email to: ljfedresources@aol.com.